DEDICATION

Emil Hoeft

Sheldon Nerby

For almost a decade you have placed us, the students of Sparta Senior High, before yourself. If anyone should believe that only the students are of importance to you - although we know that we're foremost in your heart - your colleagues, with whom you have worked, think ever so highly of you. Your patience, understanding, and thoughtfulness have shone through time and time again, and it is our hope that you will want to remain at Sparta Senior High School for many years to come.

"A teacher affects eternity, he can never tell where his influence stops."

Henry Brooks Adams

IN MEMORIAM OF

Jerry Hannum

Larry Jones

Micheal Belky

Mike, Jerry, and Larry, we, the students and teachers of Sparta Senior High, remember you. It seems but a day since you were with us in classes doing our daily work and in the on-rush of many activities. Now we know the full meaning of the poet's words.

"Life is but a day

A fragile dewdrop

On this perilous way."

Anon.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

The summer came to an end for all the Sparta Senior High School students on August 30, 1965, for this was the day that the halls were filled for the first time with the laughter of six hundred kids of which one hundred ninety were Juniors.

We, the Juniors, elected class officers to begin the year right. Gayle Horner was elected class President, Kris Brown, Vice-President, Edie Armstrong, Treasurer, and Secretary, Cindy Herberg. They deserve much credit for the accomplishments of the class.

We received excellent guidance from our Junior class advisors who were: Mr. Larson, Chairman, Mr. Haville, Mr. George, Mr. Kramer, Mr. Packard, Mr. Peterson, Miss Risetter, Mr. Teske, Mr. Tompkins, and Mrs. McKellar.

We were well represented in Student Council for Bonnie Monick, Cindy Herberg, and Tom Jensen were Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer and Parliamentarian respectively. We hope they will continue their good works through the Senior year.

Judy Jones and Bonnie Monick cheered our team to victory with their mighty yells and onward school spirit.

Each year the Juniors are honored by having two especially chosen girls to reign as attendants to the Homecoming Queen. This year it was a pleasure to have Peggy Quirk and Kris Brown as the Homecoming attendants for nineteen sixty-five.

It gave the Juniors great honor to see Jim Tracy crown Sue Ann Jensen queen of the Sweet-Hearts at the annual winter dance. This privilege is usually granted to the Seniors, but Jim and Sue reigned over all.

This year has been truly one to be remembered by all students graduating in nineteen sixty-seven.

STUDENT COUNCIL - ADVISE AND CONSENT! ?

Sparta Senior High School Student Council held session once weekly in the classroom of Mr. Nerby, advisor. The council functioned in such a way as to attempt to keep the student body of Sparta Senior High happy, satisfied, and content at all times.

Jeff Newburg tapped the gavel year-round as President, in charge of making sure all projects were functioning properly. He was aided by Bonnie Monick, Vice-president, and Cindy Herberg, Secretary-treasurer.

Student Council functioned on a committee system, based upon different projects, services, and activities. There were thirteen standing committees, each with a necessary purpose. Committees that didn't function as they should have were genuinely run through the mill by the council. Standing committee chairmen were the following:

Poll and Election - Cindy Herberg
Exchange - Bonnie Monick
Scholarship - Bev Anderson
Dress-up Day - Cindy Herberg
Twirp - Ann Runde
Civics - Barb Heffling
Bookcover - Bill Gleiss
Homecoming - Sue Ann Jensen
Noon Hour Recreation - Joe Arteln
Snoball (Sweetheart Dance) - Cheryl Luedtke
School Spirit - Bonnie Monick
Sunshine - Ann Runde
Activity Ticket - Tom Jensen

Cindy Herberg and Jeff Newburg attended the WASC Workshop in August for six days. The purpose of the affair was to train new council leaders.

Homecoming 1965 was held after the last home football game in the gym. Queen Jane Berendes was crowned the night before the dance. Sue Ann Jensen's committee had much work to do, but managed to convince many organizations to have floats in the Homecoming parade, which was a smashing success, except for a strong wind that quickly took care of the Student Council float, which came away with an Honorable Mention.

Noon hour dances were held three days a week under the supervision of the Noon hour Recreation committee. These dances were extremely popular. Dress-up days were held at appropriate times throughout the year, as well as two successful candy sales.

The annual Christmas project for needy families brought joy to the hearts of many young children in the Sparta area, under the Civics Committee.

The Sweetheart Dance, under the reign of King Jim Tracy and Queen Sue Ann Jensen, was held in February. The Jesters Three furnished the music for an enjoyable evening.

Girls went stalking during the week of March 21-25, as Twirp got underway. The big dance was held on Friday night, with Kangaroo court attacking many a delinquent on that afternoon.

These activities, along with many others, including attendance at the state conference, and much heated argument on the Council's floors, made 1965-66 Sparta Student Council very successful. Elections that were held now in April have given us more leaders to retain a fine, helpful Council next year. All Sparta High students are thanked for their cooperation with Council.

Bruce Herold - Most Improved

B. Herold, S. Bloom, S. Thomas - Leading Rebounders

Randy Jenkins - Comeback Player of the season

Jim Zimmerman, Fred Heffling, John Hart - Real
Scramblers of the team

In Coach Enge's words, "They never gave up the drive to win"

Spartan rooters should see lots of fine action next season, due to the hard efforts of this year's B squad, coached by Mr. Enge

The team lost many a tough game, as evidenced by the last three games, which were lost by a total of just four points!

Coach Mike Farley

PRINCE IS A T.P. CALLED JACKING

The golf squad enjoyed one of the most successful seasons of any varsity sport. First place was earned in most triangular and quadrangular conference meets.

Dave Jackson and Buzz Goff rated top and second rankings during the entire season, but Jim Peterson was often low scorer in matches. Ron Koji, Trygve Pederson, and brother Dave also turned in fine performances.
